

SPC Stephen B. Garza

SPC Stephen B. Garza was born in the small town of Twin Falls, Idaho. He attended and graduated from Jerome High School excelling in English and history. He enlisted into the United States Army on July 7, 2008 holding the rank of PV2. He completed Basic Combat Training and Advanced Individual Training at Fort Jackson, South Carolina. He is assigned to Bravo Detachment, 33rd Financial Management Company at Fort Drum, New York.

SPC Garza attended and completed the unit armor course as well as multiple hours of military correspondence courses. SPC Garza was named the Soldier of the Quarter for both the 10th Sustainment Brigade Troops Battalion and the 10th Sustainment Brigade. He is currently working towards his Associate's degree in Political Science through American Military University.

His short term goals are to join the NCO Corps upon completion of Warrior Leaders Course by being promoted to the rank of Sergeant. His long term goals are to apply to the West Point Military Academy and be commissioned as an officer. After his term as an officer, he plans to obtain a Criminal Law Degree and become a prosecuting attorney.

SPC Garza's awards and decorations include the Army Achievement Medal, National Defense Service Medal, the Global War on Terrorism Service Medal, and the Army Service Ribbon. His hobbies include hiking, biking, golf, tennis, video games, reading, and playing chess.